

WESTGATE CHAMBERS

Trina Little

Barrister

"Trina has outstanding attention to detail. Her robust approach to advocacy sees her continually achieve excellent results for clients."

Trina has a thriving practice in Financial Remedy and Private Law.

Trina is renowned for her outstanding client care skills and her ability to immediately put her clients at ease and gain their confidence during what is undoubtedly a very stressful time for them. Her instructing solicitors are also quick to praise her communication both before and after hearings and her willingness to discuss progress and strategy during a case.

Financial Remedy

Trina is continually instructed on high net worth cases that demand complex financial analysis and cases involving undisclosed assets and pensions.

TOLATA and Schedule 1

Trina is also instructed in financial applications involving children. These include cases pursuant to Schedule 1 Children Act 1989 and between former co-habitants pursuant to the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996.

Child Arrangements

Trina is also regularly instructed in child arrangements cases. Trina has expertise in dealing with cases that include coercive control, specific issue and prohibited steps, as well as parental alienation.
